Publisher's Company Organized.

* Stockholders of the Associated Publisher's Company in this city will hear the interesting news of the completion of the organization and its incorporation under the laws of the State of Delaware. Stock certificates have been issued and the first prospectus forwarded to the stockholders in the concern.

The movement for the formation of the company to take a place among the leading magazine publishing concerns of the country was inaugurated several months ago and the progress made so far has proven very satisfactory to the promoters of the enterprise.

It might be well to call the attention of our readers to the plans of the company which contemplates the distribution of a magazine supplement as a feature of the best daily, weekly and semi-weekly newspapers of the smaller cities, those with established circulations in farming communities not reached by the metropolitan newspapers which furnish literature of a similar nature.

The circulation is being secured under contracts of a character to insure the strong co-operation of all publishers accepted, and within a short time the circulation should rival, if not exceed that of magazine supplements with metropolitan distribution. In the several towns in Kentucky where the promoters have been operating the following newspapers have been secured:

Daily Independent, Maysville; Harrodsburg Herald, Harrodsburg; Bourbon News, Paris; Jessamine Herald, Nicholasville; Kentucky Advocate, Danville; Kentucky Register, Richmond; Somerset Journal, Somerset; Elizabethtown News, Elizabethtown; Thousand Sticks, Middlesboro; Sun-Sentinel, Winchester.

The prospectus furnished by the company clearly demonstrates the possibilities and success of the enterprise together with the immense profits to be realized by the stockholders through the publication of a magazine to become a part of hundreds of newspapers in the South.

The flattering possibilities have met with the favor of quite a number in this city, who have taken stock in the concern and there is every evidence of an increased sale of shares in the next thirty days. Mr. Carl H. Pratt, representing the company will be in the city today and tomorrow and will take pleasure in further explaining the merits of the new enterprise, or prospectus can be secured by those interested by writing The Associated Publisher's Company, Provident Building, Cincinnati, O.

Will Serve Fair Dinner.

The Women's Society of the Christian Church have secured the dining room privilege at the fair this year and will serve dinner every day during the fair. These ladies have already begun preparations and will endeavor to keep the already good reputation they have earned in the past as serving the best the market can afford for such occasions. Don't bother with cooking dinner at home during the fair, but take your guest out and treat them to one of these fine dinners. The money earned on this occasion is for the benefit of the poor and will be distributed judiciously this winter.

Ex-Bourbon Man Critically Ill.

Mrs. James L. Brown, of this city, has received news of the serious illness of her brother, Mr. John Morrow, formerly of the Hutchinson neighborhood. Mr. Morrow was stricken in Alaska and was taken to San Francisco where his condition became critical and he is now in Minnesota where he is under the care of a specialist. His illness is said to be of a peculiar nature, baffling all physicians who have treated him.

Beloved Woman Laid to Rest.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Julia Amanda Frank was held at her residence on Broadway Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were simple but impressive. Elder W. E. Ellis read the 23rd Psalm. Mrs. O. L. Davis, Mrs. Frank Fithian, Miss Julia O'Brien, Dr. Frank Fithian and F. L. Walker sang her favorite hymns, "Lead Kindly Light," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

The house was filled with sympathizing friends of the family. The body was laid to rest in the family lot by the side of that of her husband, who died two years ago. His death was a shock from which she never fully recovered.

Mrs. Frank was a beautiful Christian character, her influence for good will be long felt in this community, where she had in her quiet and simple way extended deeds of loving kindness to those less fortunate than herself. Her loss will be keenly felt in her home where she was a loving, thoughtful, self-sacrificing mother.

Plundering Trust.

In the light of the President's veto of the wool bill, which veto gives the woolen trust a continuance of its privilege to plunder the consumer while at the same time paying its workers starvation wages, a page from the hearings in connection with the Lawrence strike inquiry makes interesting reading. The witness is Miss Sanger, a trained nurse. The testimony is as follows:

Mr. Pou: Miss Sanger, were you instrumental in taking a number of the strikers' children away from Lawrence during the strike?

Miss Sanger: Yes, sir.

Mr. Pou: Did you talk with those children about their manner of living?

Miss Sanger: Yes, sir. I found that the children—there were 119 of them in my party—seldom ate meat, and their physical condition was the most horrible I have ever seen. In the first place four of the smallest children had chicken pox, and they had not received any medical attention. They were walking about among the other children apparently without noticing the chicken pox or the diphtheria one child had diphtheria. Of 119 children only four of them had underwear, and it was bitterly cold. We had to run all the way from the station to Labor Temple after we got to New York to keep from freezing.

Mr. Foster: You say only four had underwear; what was the condition of their outer clothing?

Miss Sanger: It was simply in rags. Their coats were worn to shreds.

Mr. Foster: Were the children pale and thin?

Miss Sanger: Yes, sir; and I want to say that when they had supper it would have brought tears to your eyes to see them grab the meat with their bare hands.

Mr. Foster: Did any of them have on woolen clothing of any sort?

Miss Sanger: No, sir.

Mr. Foster: And yet they all worked in woolen mills?

Miss Sanger: Yes, sir.

In his veto message Mr. Taft has much to say about the "woolen industry" and "foreign labor." He makes no mention of these poor victims of the woolen trust's greed.

He Won't Limp Now.

No more limping for Tom Moore, of Cochran, Ga. "I had a bad sore on my instep that nothing seemed to help till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve," he writes, "but this wonderful healer soon cured me." O'Rear Can't Stand For Taft.

Judge E. C. O'Rear, of Frankfort, will not support President Taft on the stump in Kentucky this fall. The Judge has said that he could neither defend the Taft administration or the method by which he secured his nomination. He further stated that he would make some speeches for his friend, Judge A. J. Kirk, Republican candidate for Appellate Judge in that district, but further than that was out of politics and would devote his time in the future solely to the practice of law.

To Kentucky Democrats:

It begins to look like there is a real chance to elect Hon. Ben V. Smith to Congress from the Eleventh district. The Progressives have put up a strong candidate in the person of a popular engineer of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, who will necessarily divide the Republican vote with Congressman Caleb Powers who seems to have lost out with all factions because of his failure to please either and his inability to land any of the prizes for his constituents in the shape of offices. The people of his district have come to the conclusion that he is absolutely without influence in Washington and as a Kentucky legislator once said of another "his people had just as well write a letter and keep him at home." At the last election Mr. Powers did not poll near the strength of his party, and this time he will fall short of his former vote. The Republicans no longer regard Mr. Powers as an asset but a liability, and think he has been "vindicated" sufficiently.

Conditions at present point to the election of Mr. Smith. He is popular with the Republicans and will draw many votes from the conservative element of that party. The Democrats of that neck of the woods are short of money, however, to conduct the campaign, which, in a district composed of so many counties and requires much money for necessary expenses. In order to raise a fund Colonel Woodson May, State District Committeeman, editor of the Somerset Journal, and manager for Mr. Smith, announced that he will attempt to raise money for the campaign in his district by popular subscription of one dollar and asks that all who want the Democrats to succeed in that stronghold of Republicans will send him that amount each. The effort is commendable and the contribution will prove an excellent investment. It's hoped that all who read this article and who feel able to do so, will send Mr. May a check for a least a dollar and help the struggling Democrats of the Eleventh District to redeem it.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired indigestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by all dealers.

Open Democratic Headquarters.

Democratic headquarters were formally opened in Louisville Monday with J. N. Camden, Chairman, and Judge S. W. Hafer, Vice Chairman, in the chair. It was Mr. Camden's purpose to announce the names of the men composing the State Campaign Committee, but as two or three districts had not made recommendations he decided not to announce the committee for a day or two.

The Hon. H. A. Summers, Elizabethtown, Ky.; the Hon. Robert Harding, Danville, Ky. were selected committeemen from the State at Large, while the following district committeemen were chosen.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

CRAZY EUROPEAN RULERS.

By A. W. MACY.

During the time Napoleon was turning Europe topsy-turvy with his splendid military genius more than half the European thrones were occupied by either lunatics or half-witted persons. Emperor Paul of Russia had a feeble intellect, a scanty education and an absurd and well-nigh insane self-conceit. Christian VII. of Denmark was so feeble and morbid that he was incapable of ruling. Queen Marie of Portugal was hopelessly insane, and had to be kept under restraint. Charles IV. of Spain was a weak ruler, hardly a shade more than half-witted. His brother, Ferdinand of Naples, was a little better, but not much. And George III. of England, intellectually sluggish and obstinate by nature, was destined to pass the last ten years of his life in hopeless insanity. Napoleon's career probably would have been shorter and less brilliant had the European thrones been occupied by vigorous monarchs.

TWENTY YEARS.

Makes a great difference in most women. They are troubled with "nerves"—they suffer from backache, headache, sleeplessness, a sensation of irritability or twitching, hot flashes, dizzy spells, or many other symptoms of female weakness. The local disorder and inflammation should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Little Tablets and the irregularity and weakness of the female system corrected and strengthened with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The strain upon the young woman or the woman of middle age upon the nerve and blood forming structures may be too great for her strength. This is the time to take this restorative tonic and strength-giving nerve and regulator. For over forty years sold by druggists for woman's peculiar weaknesses and distressing ailments. The one remedy so perfect in composition and so good in curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. The one remedy which absolutely contains neither alcohol nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

Following letter selected at random from a large number of similar ones and cited merely to illustrate these remarks:

"In the winter of 1908, I became greatly run down and irregular," writes Mrs. HENRY SCOTT, of Swan Creek, Mich., Route 1, Box 40. "I slowly but surely grew worse, and, at last, resolved to apply to the doctor for help. The doctor said I had inflammation, enlargement and laceration. I was in bed eleven weeks and got no better. The doctor said I would have to have an operation, but to that I would not listen. My husband purchased two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I started to take this remedy I could not walk across the floor, but after I had taken three bottles I could feel myself gaining, so I dropped the doctor and took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Only for it I think I would have been dead—I really believe it saved my life. I feel better now than in twenty years."

Mrs. Scott.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Caillehan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

DR. FRANKLIN'S POLITE SARCASM.

By A. W. MACY.

Dr. Benjamin Franklin was noted for his politeness, though he not infrequently tinged it with sarcasm. In 1774 he was dismissed by the British government from the office of surveyor general of the postoffice in America, no reason being assigned except that his majesty the king had no further need for his services. Two years later the Continental congress appointed him postmaster general of all North America; whereupon he could not resist the temptation to write the English minister that the British government need not worry any more about postal affairs in America as they had again been placed in competent hands. Some months after the opening of the war he summed up the situation thus in a letter to a friend in England: "The English have made a campaign here, which cost two million; they have gained a mile of ground, and lost half of it back again. They have lost 1,500 men and killed 150 Yankees. Meantime we have had between 50,000 and 70,000 children born. How long will it take to conquer America?"

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

"There!" said the ambitious young man when he had finished his great epic, "that's done. Now all that is necessary is to find a publisher and cause the public to become interested in me. Confound it! I have no friend whose wife would be willing to cause a commotion by eloping with me."

WILSON'S SPEECH HIGHLY PRAISED

Press and Public Men Join In Chorus of Approval.

DISCREET, ABLE, SAFE, SANE.

"Will Impress the Country Favorably," Declares William Jennings Bryan. "Admirable Pronouncement," Says Champ Clark—"Appeals Strongly to Every Legitimate Business Interest," Declares John W. Kern.

An Admirable Speech.

Hon. William J. Bryan—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is admirable. It is original in its treatment of the issues of the campaign. I am sure the address will impress the country favorably."

Appeals Strongly to Every Legitimate Business Interest.

John W. Kern, Senator From Indiana—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is a masterpiece, setting forth with great clearness his conception of the work to be accomplished by the Democratic party under his leadership. It is in complete harmony with the progressive sentiment of the country, but also appeals strongly to every legitimate business interest."

Will Take High Rank.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives—"Considered from a literary standpoint, Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance will take high rank in the political output of the year. It will make pleasant reading and therefore will prove a fetching campaign document. He discusses the issues of the day philosophically, clearly and forcibly. Its courteous tone will allay opposition and win him friends. It is an admirable pronouncement."

Battle Hymn of Democracy.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma—"The closing sentence of his speech will become the battle hymn of Democracy in the pending campaign: 'I thank God and take courage.' It is at once a paean of praise and is a summons of patriotic duty."

Discreet, Able, Safe and Sane.

John E. Lamb, ex-Representative From Indiana—"Speech is discreet, able, safe and sane. Governor Wilson believes in the efficacy of the scalpel rather than the big stick. His dissection of trust and tariff evils is unique and convincing. His suggestions of reform in methods of government and reduction of tariff schedules will meet with approval of legitimate business and the laboring masses as well."

Points the Way For Justice.

Hoke Smith, Senator From Georgia—"I am delighted with Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance. It is a superb statement of the present purpose of the Democracy and points the way for justice to all through real progress by law under the constitution. With his election assured, it should give confidence to honest business and new courage to those who need a square deal."

Lays His Soul Bare.

John F. Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston. "Governor Wilson's acceptance is characteristic of the man. He lays his soul bare to the people and asks them to join with him, irrespective of party. In righting present wrongs without undue clamor or injury to legitimate interests. He lays emphasis on constructive thinking, and I believe this epitomizes one of the nation's greatest needs at the present time. It will be President Wilson overwhelmingly in November."

Progressive, but Not Wild.

Thomas Mott Osborne, Auburn, N. Y.—"Governor Wilson's speech fits the occasion and the man—progressive, but not wild; sane, strong and unmistakably Democratic. It makes an inspiring opening of the campaign, indicating clearly and nobly the spirit in which the leaders of our regenerated Democratic party must work; not one of mere partisan make believe, but of honesty and justice toward all men."

Prophetic of Success.

Governor William H. Mann of Virginia—"I think it was an admirable speech. It was wise, conservative, comprehensive, prophetic not only of Democratic success, but of Democratic supremacy for years to come."

Rings True in Every Sentence.

Governor Frederick W. Plaisted of Maine—"It is a splendid presentation of the issues for the American people. It rings true in every sentence and in every word. It represents the spirit of the Democracy of today. It is the address of a statesman."

An Admirable Presentation.

Governor Eugene Foss, Massachusetts—"It was an admirable presentation."

REVISE TARIFF UNHESITATINGLY DOWNWARD.

There should be an immediate revision of the tariff, and it should be downward, unhesitatingly and steadily downward.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

DEVIL PUTS A BOY ON HOT GRIDIRON

Naughty Lad Disobeys His Mother and Gets Into Many Kinds of Trouble.

STEPS ON THIRD RAIL

Said Afterward That He Thought He "Blew Up," and That His Back and Legs Felt Like Something Was Going Through Them.

New York.—A very persistent devil whispered into the ear of nine-year-old Charles Moffit as he left his home at No. 85 Catherine street to play in the street the other afternoon.

"Remember," his mother had said, "the devil gets boys who are bad. You mustn't go out of the neighborhood and you mustn't get papers for the newsman."

For Charles's principal income and candy fund came from the money the newsdealer on the corner gave him for trips to a news company.

Though Charles had promised neither to leave the street nor go for papers, the devil suggested that the day was Saturday and that the boy wouldn't be paid for his week's work unless he finished it, and that it would be too bad to lose a whole week's pay just because of failure to work one day.

Charles, tempted, fell. He trotted quickly to a news depot in Chambers street and started to go home. But that devil whispered again. It would be nice to go out on Brooklyn bridge and see how the motormen ran their trains to Coney Island. Again Charles fell. He got by the policemen on the northern vehicle roadway of the bridge, and with his package of "59 cents' worth of papers" stood close to the Manhattan bound track of the "L" trains.

A train went by. The devil joggled Charles's arm and the package fell to the tracks a few feet below. The small transgressor decided he would have to rescue the papers or he wouldn't get his pay.

"I hung on wid me hands," said Charles afterward, "and then I put down me foot, I touched a thing down there. When I let go I blew up."

If Charles didn't blow up, he certainly did go up. His foot came in contact with the third rail and sparks flew from his school shoes, of which his mother had told him to be careful.

"Me back and me legs felt like something was going t'rough 'em," says Charles. He went into the air, shrieking with pain. But he only rose two feet; then he came down sitting between the rails. A moment afterward he was standing up in the center of the track, rubbing himself, while a crowd of homeward bound Brooklynites was standing on the promenade shouting advice. Two practical men shoved forward and stretched their hands down to Charles. First he passed up his bundle of papers, then he consented to be lifted out.

Patrolman Schnitzler of the bridge squad came up and took the mean devil's victim to the police room at the Manhattan tower. Dr. Orr arrived in an ambulance from the Hudson street hospital and the boy was stripped. Not one burn was on him. Dr. Orr and the police thought it was amazing that Charles had not been killed outright. They told the boy he could go home.

Charles delivered the papers intact to the newsman at Catherine and South streets and asked for his 15 cents. He had resolved to end forthwith all connection with the devil. He was told he would be paid later. Then he slipped into his home.

He said nothing, but eventually the news penetrated the circle of his brothers, thence reached eleven-year-old Mary, his sister, and then, of course, got to his mother.

TRAFFIC IS TIED UP BY ROOSTER AND BOY

Fowl Hides Under a Street Car and the Boy Crawls After It.

Atlanta, Ga.—A negro boy and a domineer rooster stopped all traffic on Peachtree street just north of the Piedmont hotel early the other afternoon. A line of street cars half a block long were blocked, while behind them were five or ten autos and perhaps that many wagons and other vehicles.

When an in-bound Walker street car stopped at the entrance of the Piedmont hotel to take on passengers, the domineer rooster escaped the grasp of the negro boy who was standing idly on the sidewalk. The frightened chicken made a bee-line for the car and sought refuge from the crowd and traffic of the street in the trucks of the car.

When the passengers were all aboard the conductor gave the go-ahead signal, but a bystander called to the motorman that there was a boy under the car. In the meantime several other street cars had come up behind the Walker street car, and behind these was a line of impatiently tooting automobiles.

The motorman got down and tried to pull the boy out, but the negro evaded him and declared he would not get out until he got the chicken. The conductor came to his help, then some of the passengers, and, finally, a policeman. Finally the chicken was pinned down with the switch rod carried by the motorman and the conductor crawled in and secured it.

RATTLESNAKE ATTACKS CHILD

California Woman Seeing Peril of Little Son, Goes to Rescue, Capturing Reptile.

Long Beach, Cal.—Confronted with the fact that her son was in imminent danger Mrs. J. E. Bolin of Crescent avenue proved herself a brave woman the other day, when she captured a live rattlesnake, which was coiled ready to strike the child. The little fellow was walking across the yard and almost stepped upon the reptile. The snake was almost under the lad's feet, when he heard its rattle and he jumped back with a yell that brought his mother on the run. The snake was coiled ready to strike when Mrs. Bolin, with a long stick, attacked the reptile and pinioned its head to the ground. Then calling to her son he brought a glass jar into which Mrs. Bolin forced the rattlesnake and then scrawled the top upon the jar.

Later she took the imprisoned snake to the Daisy avenue school, but its acceptance was refused because of its dangerous nature.

"The Only Son" regarded by many as the greatest play written by Winchell Smith, who also wrote the "Fortune Hunter," and other big successes, is booked to open the Cincinnati Grand on Sunday night, Sept. 1. Thomas Ross will be seen in the leading role, supported by a specially selected company. The play has enjoyed long runs in New York and Chicago, and Manager John H. Havlin is congratulating himself on having secured it to open the season at the Grand. Paris Takes a Double Header.

The Bourbonites journeyed to Frankfort yesterday and was successful in downing the league leaders in the double bill that was staged yesterday afternoon. The first game resulted in a shut-out, Paris winning by a score of 4 to 0, while the second was 2 to 1 in favor of the Bourbonites.

The locals will return to Paris today and will meet the Colts for the last time this season on the local grounds, Saturday and Sunday the Orphans will be the attraction here.

TUESDAY.

Frankfort made its last appearance on the local grounds this season Tuesday afternoon and walloped the locals by a score of 6 to 1. Hauser was on the mound for the locals but could not hold the league leaders. This was due to the excessive work which he has been called upon to perform, and when it became apparent that the game was lost, he made only a slight effort. Crauer for the visitors was at his best and kept his hits well scattered throughout the contest. The features of the game was the batting of Gust and the fielding of Harrell.

WEDNESDAY.

Wet grounds prevented the game between the Lawmakers and Paris Wednesday afternoon at Frankfort.

Census Taker Presents Affidavit.

In the effort to clear up the muddle over the school census which resulted from the investigation of the inspectors sent here from the Department of Education at Frankfort, which it is alleged, in a dispatch from this city to the Lexington Herald, connected Prof. G. W. Chapman with the affair, the following affidavit signed by Mrs. Lizzie Clark, the authorized census taker, has been presented:

"The affiant states that she was born and raised in Bourbon county; that she has been census taker in the city of Paris for about ten years; that when Prof. Geo. W. Chapman became superintendent, he always told her to do her duty carefully and well, and reminded her that she would have to swear to her report; that she should take all the children of school age entitled to be taken, for we wanted all that belonged to us, but no more; that she should take all that moved into the city during the month of April, if they had not been taken that year elsewhere; that every time Prof. Chapman spoke to her about the census he made the impression that he desired her to do only what was right; that she never had at any time presented the census list to him, nor had he ever examined it unless he did so after she turned it into the County Superintendent's office; that she never considered that Prof. Chapman had any authority over her in taking the school census, and that he never tried to exercise any authority; that what he said to her was merely advisory; that in all the years she has taken the census she has taken all who moved into the city during the month of April, unless they had been previously listed; that such has been her understanding of the law, and that she holds the same opinion of the law today.

"MRS. LIZZIE CLARK"

"Subscribed and sworn to, before me by Mrs. Lizzie Clark, this August 21, 1912.

Damage by Lightning in Cities.
Investigations made over Europe seem to justify the belief that the damage by lightning, in the cities particularly, has decreased to a very marked degree in recent years, and it is explained by the presence of electric wires, which act as a protection in diverting the electric bolts. As the wires are put underground, it is expected that there will be noticed a great increase in the amount of damage by lightning and a return will be generally made to the use of lightning rods.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

Kentucky's Tobacco Crop.

Tobacco growers in Kentucky this year all can buy automobiles, according to the report made public Tuesday by the Agricultural Department. This shows that on April 1, 1912, there was a total tobacco acreage of 431,200 in Kentucky, or a gain of practically one-fourth, as compared with the acreage of 1911. Its condition was 88 per cent, compared with 69 per cent on July 1, 1911, and with 85 per cent, the ten-year average. The total acreage in chewing, smoking, snuff and export types throughout the United States is 1,012,300 acres, compared with 819,500, final estimate, for 1911, an increase of 192,800 acres, or 23 per cent. The largest increase, or 30 per cent., is in the Henderson, or stemming, district. All districts show an increase except the perique, Louisiana, and the Maryland and Eastern Ohio export.

The total of cigar leaf tobacco is 172,140 acres, as against a final estimate of 177,400 in 1911, a decrease of 5,900 acres or 3 per cent.

Here are 1912 acreages, respectively, of the Kentucky districts in chewing, smoking, snuff and export, compared with 1911:

Burley district, 228,000, compared with 190,000; Paducah, 93,800 to 75,000; Henderson, 39,200 to 75,000; Upper Green River, 35,700 to 30,000; Clarksville and Hopkinsville, 112,560 to 90,000; Upper Cumberland, 22,300 to 18,000.

The following condensed crop review by districts is herewith presented, the comparisons being with 1911:

Burley, larger and better; Paducah, larger and satisfactory; Henderson, bumper, excellent condition; Upper Green, larger and satisfactory; Upper Cumberland, larger and satisfactory; Clarksville and Hopkinsville, larger but less promising than in recent years.

DR. DOLLE'S MESSAGE TO MEN
YOU CAN BE CURED BY

Why Take Treatment That Is Doing You No Good, When a Few Days under the care of Dr. Dolle Will Show You How Easy It Is to Cure Those Diseases When the Proper Treatment Is Administered.

Have you treated for months and years, and been disappointed until you think that you cannot be cured? You, no doubt, all this time have been treated by inexperienced doctors who had neither sufficient knowledge nor experience to know how to cure you.

These are the diseases of which I have cured so many, justly giving me the reputation for cure of which I am so proud.

Blood Diseases, Ekin Diseases.
I will give you treatment that will in a few days cure all rash, spots and every skin symptom. My treatment gets the poison out of the system instead of driving it in like ordinary treatments. I cure blood diseases and skin diseases so they cannot come back.

Varicocele, causing aching or pain in groin or back, Nervousness, Weakness, Loss of Vitality, Lack of Ambition.
My one-treatment cure is what you should have and what you will have to have to be cured right. Only one visit is required. I do no cutting and you suffer no pain nor trouble. All signs disappear in a few days.

Nervous Troubles, Lost Vitality.
My combined treatment for these troubles so common among those who have become weak and worn out, who have caused it by folly, dissipation and excess, is remarkably good. No one believes how quickly it benefits until they have taken it.

It overcomes weakness, nervousness, pain in back, lack of energy, ambition and strength—it's just the treatment I have found so effective in treating such diseases.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles are scientifically cured by me. My methods immediately benefit you, and the majority of cases I cure come from physicians and specialists who failed.

Piles, Fistulae—I can cure you so that you will be surprised. I will give you just the result and cure you are looking for without a surgical operation.

Acute Diseases—Itching, Burning, remedies seldom cure. My treatment stops every symptom and cures in a few days. It is scientific—that's the only sure way to be cured so it will not come back.

You can take my Treatment without a cent and pay me after I cure you. I know that I can give you new life, new hope, and can restore you back to health and happiness. I know that every man will pay after I have eliminated every trace of disease from his system. Microscopic and analytical urinalysis FREE. I have written a book that ought to be in the hands of every suffering man in this country. I will send you a copy, free, if you will write me at once the disease for which you desire treatment.

Hours, 9 to 4; Sunday, 9 to 1 p. m. Evenings, 7 to 9 on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday nights.

NEED OF FRESH FOOD SHOWN

Scientific Name Given to Disease Which Afflicted Members of Polar Exploration Party.

In an address lately given before the Zoological Society of France, Dr. Jacques Liouville, the physician and naturalist who accompanied the Pourquoi-Pas on her antarctic expedition, stated the chief physical troubles with which the crew had to contend were three in number, all, in his opinion, springing from the lack of fresh food. He therefore terms this polar malady "the disease of conserved food." The malady comprised symptoms of scurvy, polar anaemia and severe frost bites or chilblains, which frequently bled constantly. The underlying cause of all the affections is an alteration in the chemical composition of the blood—or "dyscrasia." The heart functioned badly, and the patients suffered from terrible shortness of breath, frequent drowsiness, and oedema of the lower extremities. They were easily exhausted and unable to march, while the slightest movement brought on intense palpitation. However, all these morbid symptoms disappeared within ten days when fresh meat was obtainable, and did not appear again after the fresh wild celery obtained at Tierra del Fuego had been enjoyed for some time. Dr. Liouville took a just pride in the fact that this was the first polar expedition which ever restored all its members to their homes in a state of perfect health. He had three surgical cases to handle. Recovery was highly satisfactory, which he ascribes partly to the entire absence of pathogenic bacteria and partly to the fact that there was not a trace of alcoholism in the patients.—Scientific American.

CHORUS GIRLS WANTED EGGS

Incessant Demand Caused Irritated Chef to Come Forward With Indignant Protest.

The hauling of a theatrical company was in charge of Agent Lindsey, says the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star. He contracted to take complete charge of a good-sized operatic company for three days, furnishing sleeper and meals en route. The contract was a good one, and Mr. Lindsey determined to make the occasion memorable. "I will set the best table you can find in the state," said he to the theatrical agent. "I will guarantee there will not be a single complaint."

So he bought all the steaks and chops and lobsters and shell fish and all that sort of thing that he could find in the market and planted them in an ice box and hired a relay of chefs and undertook to feed those chorus ladies out of slenderness. There were forty persons in the company. At the first luncheon thirty-six of them ordered eggs.

"Got to order moah aigs by wire, Mr. Lindsey," reported the chef. "These heah chorus girls certainly do have the aig habit."

For dinner that night thirty-eight of the company ordered eggs in some style. The chef wired ahead for more eggs. At breakfast the next morning the entire company of forty wanted eggs, and not one of them wanted those eggs as any other one wanted them. At luncheon thirty-two demanded more eggs. That night the first pair to reach the diner asked for eggs. The chef walked right in and made the speech: "Nevah mine oderin' no moah aigs," said he. "They ain't no moah aigs. You-all must think we cabhies a hen on this car."

One of the Knox Knocks.

Philander C. Knox, the secretary of state, received one day in his office a bunch of high-browed newspaper correspondents. In the number was William Hoster, who stepped to the front with a copy of his paper in which was one of his dispatches under big, black headlines. The dispatch dealt with the affair of the department of state, and ran along glibly as if the writer had enjoyed the confidence of Mr. Knox regarding the whole matter.

"What do you think of this article?" asked Hoster, exhibiting no modesty as he handed the paper to the secretary of state.

"After looking this over," said Mr. Knox graciously, "I must say, Mr. Hoster, you are the nestor of Washington correspondents."

At this Hoster took on the aspect of a balloon and looked exceedingly pleased until Knox added softly:

"Mare's-nester."—Popular Magazine.

The Raw Recruit.

F. M. King enlisted in the Spanish-American war and was sent to Jefferson barracks. He was strolling through the company streets smoking a cigar when an officer approached. King saluted.

"Look here," said the officer, "don't you know better than to salute an officer when you have a cigar in your mouth? How long have you been here?"

"Three days," replied King. "You are excused this time," said the officer, "but don't let me catch you doing that again."

In a short time King met the same officer and walked by without saluting.

"Why didn't you salute?" demanded the officer, stopping him.

"Well, you just told me not to salute when I had a cigar in my mouth," replied the raw recruit.

But he spent three days in the kitchen peeling potatoes for this offense.—Atchison Champion.

LABOR AND THE RULE OF RIGHT.

The working people of America—if they must be distinguished from the minority that constitutes the rest of it—are, of course, the backbone of the nation. No law that safeguards their life, that improves the physical and moral conditions under which they live, that makes their hours of labor rational and tolerable, that gives them freedom to act in their own interest and that protects them where they cannot protect themselves can properly be regarded as class legislation or as anything but as a measure taken in the interest of the whole people, whose partnership in right action we are trying to establish and make real and practical. It is in this spirit that we shall act if we are genuine spokesmen of the whole country.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

tion of the real issues upon which the campaign will be fought this fall. I think that it is bound to strengthen Governor Wilson among the thinking people of the country."

Will Ring Through the Country.

Governor George W. Donaghey, Arkansas—"It was a great speech. It will ring through the country. It is just what he should have said. The people have never felt more confident of success since the first nomination of Grover Cleveland."

Iowa For Wilson.

Judge Martin J. Wade, Iowa—"For the first time since the state was admitted to the Union Iowa will this year give its electoral vote to the Democratic nominee for president."

Jeffersonian to the Core.

John A. Dix, Governor of New York—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesmanlike position on the paramount issue of tariff reform and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation clear conception of the truth that the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize in their government and their economic industrial and social relations the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress, upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need Governor Wilson applies the 'rule of right and common advantage.' The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that will restore to the people the control of their government and inaugurate a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

Worthy Leader of Progressive Americans.

Louis D. Brandeis, Boston—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the utterance of a twentieth century statesman. With keen perception he recognizes the evils from which the people are suffering and the dangers which threaten our welfare. With broad vision he points the way by which those evils may be removed and the dangers averted. He proves his understanding alike of business and of social needs and that he is a Democrat in fact as well as in name, and his courage is undoubted. Progressive Americans have in him a worthy leader."

Equable and Moderate.

New York Sun—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance has good luck as well as merit. It comes just in time to contrast sharply with the interminable bedlamite rant of Th. Dentatus Africanus Ferox. And, if without contempt of campus it may be said, though written by a college president very recently retired, it is in the English language, not anaemic and seldom with suspicion of priggishness or donnishness, though it has an air, a certain academic distinction of its own. What will please everybody who has a living to make is Governor Wilson's equable and moderate tone. Governor Wilson is for repair, not for destruction."

Partnership of the People.

New York Times—"It is applicable. The dominant thought, the very soul of his discourse, is the common interest of all the people, their partnership in our activities and our prosperity. The partnership idea comes from his mind not as a sublimated political theory, but as a practical, immediate remedy."

Straight to the Heart.

New York World—"Woodrow Wilson's speech of acceptance is the ablest, clearest, sanest statement of high public purpose this country has known in a generation. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without partisan bitterness, without denunciation, without egotism, without demagoguery, he has driven straight to the heart of the supreme issue of American institutions—the partnership between government and privilege."

REMINDED HER OF OLD DAYS

Real Old-Fashioned House Cleaning in the City Interesting Because of Its Novelty.

"There's a real old-fashioned house-cleaning going on next door," said the girl who lives on the top floor, "and it's so long since I saw anything approaching it that it seems mighty interesting. People move so much in New York that there doesn't appear to be any more reason for housecleaning. They have rugs instead of carpets and they hang pictures on tacks and leave their curtains up all summer, which no self-respecting woman would do in the old days."

"But next door they are beating carpets and painting shutters and they've hung all the winter clothes out on the lines and washed the blankets and whitewashed the cellar and put the window screens out and played the hose on them, and you can just imagine how clean and cool and shining the house will be when it's all over with. Of course it is not so easy as the new way of hiring housecleaning companies that bring their air brooms and other apparatus that do the job up in twenty-four hours or so, but you cannot convince an old housekeeper that the machine way of cleaning house is better than the old way any more than you could make her believe pure food pickles are equal to the homemade kind."—Press York Press.

TAXED BY PHYSICAL WEIGHT

Novel Scheme of French Town Authorities That Met With Bitter Opposition From the Women.

A small French town in the Pyrenees district has struck a novel way to increase revenue from taxation. The ordinary channels not bringing enough to carry out certain projected improvements, the municipal council decided to place a tax on the physical weight of the citizens, arranging the following scheme: Below 135lb., no tax; from 135lb. to 200lb., 12s. annually is demanded; from 200lb. to 270lb., 13s.; for all weights above this figure the tax increases at the rate of 24s. for each 20lb.

Trouble came when the local authorities tried to collect the tribute. Most of the fat people formed a committee to appeal to the prefect, who represents the federal authority in the district. Thus a stay was gained. But it appears probable that the town could put into execution the new law if it should fight the case in the courts. Most of the opposition came from the women, who held meetings and torchlight processions to signify their opposition to the measure, which struck them harder than their husbands.

Won't Have His Calling Insulted.

There is one sure way to insult a delicatessen storekeeper and turn the honey of his disposition into gall. It can be done by remarking carelessly as you buy his meat balls or fish cakes that you only want them for the cat, anyhow. No delicatessen man with an ounce of dignity can stand that.

"I lost a customer last week by refusing to sell a ring of liverwurst to a woman who was buying it for her dog," said one man in the trade. "She was a good customer, but when she decided that she guessed that ring of liverwurst would do because she only wanted it for the dog, I said: 'Madam, human beings might feel honored to eat that wurst; it is not for dogs,' and I put it back in the case."

"Meat balls composed of the very best beef, veal, eggs, and cracker crumbs are likewise insulted. They will do for the cat. If women must buy these delicacies for their pets, let them, but let them refrain from insulting the storekeeper by telling him so."

Libraries in Navy.

The navy department spends every year $30,000 for libraries for its ships. Each "ship's" library includes 300 books, mostly technical and more or less expensive on that account. A "crew's" library is usually made up of about five hundred books on fiction and of such character suitable for entertainment.

About one-third of the books are replaced each year. The changes are made upon recommendation of those in charge of the ships, but it has developed that this is not a satisfactory method, as much depends upon the points of view on literature possessed by the responsible persons. So it is proposed to standardize the libraries by making the changes in Washington, applying them generally to all ships. It is further held that this plan would work for economy, effecting a saving of from $10,000 to $15,000 a year.

Intercity Meal Tickets.

Restaurants where the meal ticket system prevails adopt various devices to attract trade. A New York proprietor recently posted this sign above his desk:

"Meal tickets purchased here good in restaurants in Boston, Baltimore, Washington and Chicago."

Then followed the addresses of the restaurants where the meal tickets would be honored.

"No, I have no interest in those houses," the proprietor said, "but I know the owners, and we concluded that it would be a good plan to exchange tickets so that customers going from town to town could make sure of a square meal in case work was slack or they got extravagant and spent all their money."

PROBLEM THAT PUZZLED HIM

Bobby Didn't Understand How He Could Get Candy for Three With "One Money."

It was a charming summer morning. Bobby, aged five; Seth, aged four, and Jennie, aged three, were escorting their father, Doctor Jackson, on his daily visit to the village postoffice. He had promised them candy, and they straggled along in great content. Opposite the telephone office the procession was suddenly brought to a stop by the operator, who appeared in the door and beckoned the doctor imperatively.

"Hey, doc! You're wanted over at Clifton right away!" he cried. "I tried to get you at the house, and your wife said you were on your way downtown. You've got to hurry!" The doctor turned about hurriedly, but the three pleading faces made him hesitate. He thrust his hand into his pocket, found no pennies. So he selected a nickel, and placed it in Bobby's hand.

"Now, Bobby, papa must hurry. You take this and get the candy. Get some for Seth and Jennie, too, you know. And be sure to go right back home after you get it."

Bobby, who had not yet learned that there were coins of larger value than the penny, took the nickel without much enthusiasm, and the children proceeded to the candy shop. Here Bobby took his seat upon an upturned box and let his chin fall upon his breast. A telltale sob betrayed his state of mind to the clerk.

"Why, Bob," exclaimed the sympathetic clerk, "I never knew you to cry! What's the matter?"

Bobby showed the nickel that had been shut tight in his warm little fist.

"Papa told me to get candy for all of us," he gulped, "and I can't! Seth and I can't have any. I've only got"—another sob—"one money!"—Youth's Companion.

CANTANKEROUS TO THE LAST

Not Even Praise of His Own Handiwork Availled to Soften Old "Uncle Jake."

"Uncle Jake" was one of the characters of Bunbury. He was as deaf as a post—when he wanted to be—and as contrary as a bundle of sticks.

One of his neighbors came into his yard one day and said, "Uncle Jake, I'd like to borrow your wagon this morning; mine is having a spring mended."

"You'll have to speak louder," rejoined Uncle Jake. "I don't hear very well, and I don't like to lend my wagon, anyhow!"

The old man was an expert maker of axe helms—an occupation in which there is more art than the uninitiated would suppose—and these handles he left at the village store to be sold on commission.

One snowy day as Uncle Jake came stamping up the steps of the store, another old fellow who was known as Uncle Horace remarked to the men lounging about the stove:

"I'll treat the crowd if I don't make Uncle Jake agree to the first thing I say to him when he comes in."

"Don't be rash, Uncle Horace!" called out the storekeeper. "That never happened yet, and it isn't likely to."

But Uncle Horace merely grinned and picked up one of Uncle Jake's axe-helves. The door opened and in came Uncle Jake.

"Jake," said Uncle Horace, running his fingers up and down the smooth wood, "this is a mighty good ax handle."

"No, it ain't," replied Uncle Jake at once. "I can't make good handles, but that one you've got is the kind people want. They don't know no better!"

And Uncle Horace treated the company to sardines, crackers and cheese.—Youth's Companion.

Lords in the Making.

Allan Dawson, a New York editor, says he was in London when the question of making 500 new lords was agitating England, and that he happened to be in the press gallery of the house of commons when the subject was under discussion.

"It was an exciting time," said Dawson. "A list of names was under consideration: I listened until the house had disposed of three and had elected their titles. The first man decided upon was General Booth of the Salvation army. It was set forth that his title was to be Lord Saveus. The next was Mr. Patterson, the big baggage and express man of London, and his title was to be Lord Deliverus. The third was Mr. Pink, who owns the largest jam factory in England. They fixed his title as Lord Preserveus. Then I came away."—Saturday Evening Post.

Clay Had Campaign Banners.

Jerome Carter Hosmer, president of the Dorchester (Mass.) Historical society, at the next regular meeting of that society will present a banner which was carried by the adherents of Henry Clay through the New England states at the time of Mr. Clay's candidacy for president of the United States. It is thought to be the only one in existence.

Twenty-seven states are represented, the stars encircling the portrait of Henry Clay. Within the circle are the words, "National Currency and Protection." In the four corners of the banner are the words agriculture, commerce, manufacture and encouragement. The flag is said to have been carried by enthusiastic followers of Clay in Worcester and Roxbury in 1844.

Sweet Charity.

"Has it ever occurred to you that the more money a man has the more difficult it is for him to be charitable? When one is poor and has only a few cents it is an easy matter to divide the money with some poor devil who has none."

Eagle Not Always Brave.

Eagles are generally believed to be very courageous. That they are not always as brave as is supposed is proved by the following anecdote: A naturalist tells of a combat between ten missel-thrushes and a white-tailed eagle, in which the latter was thoroughly vanquished, and was discovered squatting down in a shed, where he had been driven in hope of refuge from the angry birds.

You Want the Best—
Not the Cheapest

Flanders "20" Roadster, $750

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost you far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that runs today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort into the bargain.

We can prove it—Send for new catalogue

Sadness of Unbelief.

I look upon unbelief as the greatest of calamities. It is the loss of the chief aid of virtue, of the mightiest power over temptation, of the most quickening knowledge of God, of the only sure hope. The unbeliever would gain unspeakably by parting with every possession for the truth which he doubts or rejects.—William Ellery Channing.

Ringling Circus.

Ringling Brothers Circus and newly added $500,000 spectacle of "Joan of Arc," will exhibit in Lexington, Tuesday, Sept. 3. The spectacle in itself is an attraction that should bring thousands of visitors from the surrounding country. It is beyond question the greatest production of its kind ever seen in America.

The world's most skillful scenic artists, costumers, property-makers, chorus directors and stage managers were engaged to mount the production. A stage bigger than a hundred ordinary theatres was built and made portable so that it can be conveyed from town to town and erected each morning in the main tent. Thus the circus proprietors have made it possible for those who live in tributary towns as well as in the large cities to see this magnificent wordless play with its cast of 1,200 characters, a ballet of 300 dancing girls, a grand opera chorus of 400 voices, 600 horses and a train load of special scenery, costumes, properties and mechanical devices for producing such stage effects as thunder, lightning, storms, fires, and the sound of battle.

In the old market place of Rouen, France, there now stands a monument by which the French of today have sought to redeem their part in the execution of Joan of Arc, who, on May 30, 1431, was burned to death on the false charge of heresy after having delivered her country from the English and having restored the crown to Charles VII. History records that the meager facts of this strange heroine of eighteen years, who led the armies of France victorious through English invasion, and then, deserted by all, even the indolent monarch whom she preserved, died by the cruelest torture known with the name of the master upon her lips. Unsung in poetry the name of this simple peasant girl has come down through the ages to be revered as that of a saint, and whose wonderful powers and whose bravery are verily believed to have been of divine inspiration.

On the triumphant incidents, the victorious engagements, the final defeat of the English armies, and the coronation of Charles VII, all achieved by the frail Maid of Orleans, has been founded the inspiring spectacle which gives Ringling Brothers' Circus a new significance and makes an attraction such as the world has never before found.

The regular circus program is more than ever attractive. Its company of 375 foreign artists, its double menagerie and its new street parade will prove a great surprise to those who attend from this city. The event is one that should not be missed.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

A ROMAN TRIBUTE TO LINCOLN.

By A. W. MACY.

About a year after the death of President Lincoln there was found in the basement of the White House a large stone with an inscription, in Italian, of which this is a translation: "To Abraham Lincoln, President for the second time of the American Republic, citizens of Rome present this stone, from the wall of Servius Tullius, by which the memory of each of those brave assertors of liberty may be associated." No one about the White House knew anything about the stone, or had ever heard of it. No one remembered having heard Lincoln speak of it. It seems that after his re-election these Roman patriots, wishing to show their admiration of his character and their appreciation of his work, took this stone from the wall of the wise and just old Roman emperor, had the inscription placed upon it, and sent it to him as a testimonial. It is believed that in order to avoid notoriety, and in keeping with his modest nature, he quietly placed the stone in the basement and said nothing about it to any one. It may now be seen in the custodian's room of the Lincoln monument at Springfield, where it was placed by direction of congress.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated. Testimony of Paris Citizens.

When a Paris citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far places do not command your confidence. Home indorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Paris resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

M. Holleran, 200 W. Seventh St., Paris, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are mighty good and I am glad to praise them to everyone. I had a lot of trouble from my back and kidneys. The action of my kidneys caused me much suffering and sometimes the passage of the secretions were painful. I had backaches, too. I used many medicines, but was not benefited until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon made me better and stronger." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N.
